Welcome to the County of Riverside!

As an employee of the County of Riverside, the IRS requires that you take action on income or benefits that may be considered received, even if you have not physically received them yet. Based on the provisions of your Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), you must make a one-time irrevocable election within sixty (days) from notification, identifying which Plan your future qualifying leave balance will be deposited into.

This election shall remain in effect for the duration of your employment and subject to the provisions of any applicable bargaining agreement upon separation of employment. The initial irrevocable election per bargaining group will remain in effect and cannot be changed later.

NOTE: Tax consequences of these plans are governed by the constructive receipt doctrine embodied in the regulations under 451 of the Internal Revenue Code. Under this doctrine, as detailed by the Department of Treasury, a taxpayer will be subject to tax upon an item of income if they have an unrestricted right to determine when and how such an item of income should be paid. This is further defined in §1.451-1(a) of the Income Tax Regulations, which outlines that an item of income is includible in gross income for the taxable year in which it is actually or constructively received.
